

Dear Carol Singers,

We hope you will join us this year to sing local carols. I'm pleased to say that Peter Gait will be playing for both evenings

Sunday 19 December, The Yorkshire Bridge Inn, Conservatory, 8.00pm.

At the Yorkshire Bridge Inn, the Conservatory has a high ceiling and a number of windows which we will open for good ventilation.

(If you would like to come to the Yorkshire Bridge evening but are worried by the idea of singing indoors, please let me know. We can change the plan if we need to).

Tuesday 21 December, The Anglers Rest, Marquee and Car Park, 8.00pm. We will definitely be outside here, so pray for decent weather! The Marquee is well lit with a roof providing some protection. In the car park you'll need a torch, unless you already know the words of course!!

Please bring your carol books. We will provide words as usual. Please wrap up well!

The usual precautions apply. Please do a lateral flow test on the day and don't turn up if you feel unwell.

We're looking forward to celebrating together the joy of Christmas.
